In January of 2004, Terri Jendusa-Nicolai's life changed forever. Come to your 1st Well Armed Women meeting at The Shooters' Sports Center in Caledonia to listen to Terri speak to the 1st hand horror of Domestic Violence! Listen to her and Lyn Hildenbrand (Racine Womens' Resource Center) along with Racine County Sheriff Chris Schmaling discuss how prevalent in today's society, Domestic Violence really is. More importantly, listen to discussion about remedies and options within the program structures that have been developed over the last few years to combat this terrible crime.

Consider joining The Well Armed Women. This organization caters to the interest and needs of women and focusses on providing advice on empowering, equipping, and educating ladies interested in knowing more about safety and self-awareness, and how to have a great, safe time enjoying what traditionally has been known as a predominately male field. Each month the host range (The Shooters' Sports Center in this case) offers a site where the chapter conducts classroom or presentation driven training followed by hands-on live-fire exercises to fulfill the Three "E's" of The Well Armed Women.
